

LABORATORY FEES

A laboratory fee is charged in addition to tuition for specific courses. This fee helps defray the costs of additional class hours, special instruction, special equipment and material, special facilities, and/or expendable supplies required in course(s). The fee varies depending on course.

