

CLASS STANDING

A freshman is defined as a matriculated student working toward a degree who has earned 29.5 or fewer college-level credits. A sophomore is defined as a matriculated student working toward a degree who has earned 30 or more college-level credits.